Lloyd's Register

Descrizione:

Lloyd's Register (LR) is a global engineering, technical and business services organisation wholly owned by the Lloyd's Register Foundation, a UK charity dedicated to research and education in science and engineering. Founded in 1760 as a marine classification society, LR now operates across many industry sectors, with over 9,000 employees based in 78 countries. We have a long-standing reputation for integrity, impartiality and technical excellence. Our compliance, risk and technical consultancy services give clients confidence that their assets and businesses are safe, sustainable and dependable. Through our global technology centres and research network, we are at the forefront of understanding the application of new science and technology to future-proof our clients' businesses. Our areas of business are:

Energy- As the leading authority on safety, asset reliability and business performance, the combination of our deep asset knowledge, technical expertise and ability to generate value quickly, helps clients' asset management and safety assurance across the energy supply chain – from oil fields and pipelines to refineries, power stations and manufacturing – as they tackle some of the largest, most complex engineering challenges in the commercial world.

Marine-Lloyd's Register Marine is a leading provider of marine classification services around the world, helping ensure that internationally recognised safety and environmental standards are maintained at every stage of a ship's life. But we are not just about surveying ships; we are dedicated to supporting the development of new technologies and innovations that will help our clients achieve the best possible performance from their ships and operations. With an international network of some 8,200 people, we have an unrivalled view of the technical developments shaping shipping today. This means that, wherever our clients are, we are nearby and able to apply a genuine understanding of the challenges they face.

LRQA-Lloyd's Register Quality Assurance (LRQA) is a world leading, independent provider of Business Assurance services including management system certification, validation, verification and training to bespoke and international standards and schemes.

Consulting-We provide independent risk management and engineering dynamic services to a wide range of international clients to advance safety and technical excellence.

Research and innovation- To help our clients meet the technical challenges they face we believe it is important that we are at the forefront of technological innovation.
